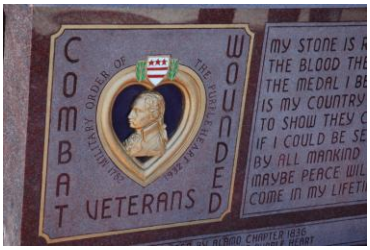
Purple Heart Monument

Tony Roman and Bexar County Commissioner Paul Elizondo worked together to persuade county officials to authorized the placement of the Purple Heart Monument at the Bexar County Justice Center.


The unveiling ceremony took place on November 1, 2006. The Purple Heart Monument is composed of red granite and is surrounded by brick pavers with the name, branch of service and war/conflict of Purple Heart recipients.